Critical Incident Stress Management: Individual Crisis Intervention and Peer Support Training

INDIVIDUAL CRISIS INTERVENTION & PEER SUPPORT TRAINING: Most crisis intervention is done individually, one-on-one. This training, designed for first responders and support personnel to increase their mental health skills, teaches the fundamentals of, and specific protocol for, peer support and individual crisis intervention.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES FOR PARTICIPANTS INCLUDE:

- Understand CISM as a comprehensive crisis intervention program
- Understand the role that individual crisis intervention plays in the comprehensive CISM program
- Understand and practice crisis communication techniques
- Understand the psychological reactions to crisis and trauma
- Apply the SAFER protocol for individual crisis intervention
- Prepare for common problems encountered while working with individuals in crisis
